Wild Card Larcher de Brito Upsets Zsilinszka (7), 6-2, 6-2

In first round Girls 18s singles action today, 13-year old Michelle Larcher de Brito (POR) upset seventh seed Reka Zsilinszka (USA) 6-2, 6-2. Larcher, who will turn 14 in January, received a wild card entry into the 18s; she is last year's Eddie Herr Girls 16s champion.

Other upsets of the day included American Anna Chkhikvishvili over Venezuelan Gabriela Coglitore Silveris (16) 6-3, 6-3 in the first round of the Girls 16s, and Yulia Putintseva (RUS) over Eugenie Bouchard [1] (CAN) 6-2, 6-2 in the Girls 12s.

Jaehwan Kim (KOR) upset number one seed Lukas Mugevicius (LTU) 7-5, 3-6, 6-1 in the fourth round of the Boys 12s. Other upsets in that division included Justin Butsch's (USA) defeat of Ilya Ivashka [1] (BLR) 7-5, 6-2; Yongjoo Jeong'a (KOR) win over Maxx Lipman [1] USA 6-1, 4-6, 6-3, and Trey Strobel's (USA) victory over Peter Arkhipov [1] (RUS) 3-6, 7-6(5), 6-3.

Seeding the 12s are based on order of merit from the player's national federation; as a result all seeds in 12s draws are all listed as [1].

The World's Best Juniors Register at the 2006 Eddie Herr International

Sunday - Registration for the 2006 Eddie Herr International Junior Tennis Tournament began as 1,695 top juniors representing 90 nations converged on IMG Academies/NBTA in Bradenton, Florida.

This year's tournament features the return of past champions Michelle Larcher de Brito (POR) and Bernard Tomic (AUS). Last year's Rising Star Award recipient and Girls 16s champion Larcher de Brito and Tomic, the 2004 Boys 12s champion, both received wild card entries into the 18s division. De Brito will turn 14 in January; Tomic turned 14 in October.
